

Holroyd & Parramatta

Child & Family Forum

Families NSW Facilitated Forums Project is a new initiative aimed at supporting and building collaborative practice in working with families with young children.

The project also aims at supporting shared learning, reflective practice and Best Practice in service delivery.

Learning Goals:

- Increased knowledge of what is meant by 'hard to reach' client populations and relevant local issues/groups
- Identify collaboratively strategies and potential partnerships that could be trialed to improve access and engagement of 'hard to reach' families
- Identify at least one step your agency/network will take immediately to attempt to improve access and engagement of 'hard to reach' families.
