

Sydney West Child Protection and Family Interagency

The Outer West Family Interagency and the Blacktown/Mt Drutt Child Protection Interagency have combined to better meet the needs of workers working with families in western Sydney.

Contacts:

PANOC

Lisa Cook. 9881 8787

lisa.cook@swahs.health.nsw.gov.au

Family Worker Training + Development Programme Inc

Veronica Riddell: 9620 6172

[veronica@fwt dp.org.au](mailto:veronica@fwt dp.org.au)

Resources can be found at [www.fwt dp.org.au](http://www.fwt dp.org.au)

Sydney West Child Protection and Family Interagency

Supports workers providing services to families in Western Sydney.

Provides networking opportunities

Heightens awareness and understanding of child protection.

Link government and non-government agencies in the local areas.

Sydney West Child Protection and Family Interagency

The Interagency will provide the opportunity for workers to share information about their services and activities to improve collaboration/referral processes between services

The agency will heighten the awareness and understanding of Child Protection

The Interagency will provide and promote relevant learning opportunities for workers

The agency will act as a vehicle of exchange of information with Metro West Senior Officers Group and other agencies

The Interagency meets
Wednesday's bi-monthly at the

Woodcroft Neighbourhood Centre
65 Woodcroft Dr
Woodcroft NSW

Time: 1.00pm to 2.30pm

Meeting Dates for 2009

25th March

27th May

22nd July

23rd September

25th November

Gold coin donation would be appreciated for afternoon tea

Sydney West Child Protection and Family Interagency

Sydney West Child Protection and Family Interagency

Actions:

- Hold bi-monthly meetings
- Minutes to be distributed to the wider network in a timely manner
- Hold annual forum
- Relevant guest speakers
- Information share
- Promote training opportunities
- Provide opportunities to identify common issues/needs and develop responses in a collaborative manner
- DoCs, Health and other government officers to report trends and new information to the Interagency
- Steering committee will chair meetings and look after planning for 2009